BEN NICOSIA RECEIVES $100 SUGGESTION AWARD

Ben, an Inprocess Inspector on Final Assembly, receives his award check from Pat Palmisano, Mgr. -Manufacturing, as Del Boss, Mgr. -Quality Control, looks on. Ben's suggestion, which resulted in the highest award made at OPEO to date, involved an improved method of adjusting the brake switch. His new method not only reduced the time required for initial adjustment and significantly reduced the number of rejects during test, but also has helped to improve the quality of our Elec-Trak.

Congratulations Ben, and again many thanks!

"SHARE" FUND DRIVE started this week with the distribution of literature and enrollment forms. The aim of the drive in OPEO is two-fold:

1. To be sure that all of our many new employees have been given the opportunity to participate.
2. To enable present participants to increase their rate of giving, if they wish.

Since the Share Fund is the principal source of revenue for the local United Fund, it is important that we provide adequate funds to operate the community's many charitable organizations.

The rate of giving is a highly personal matter that can only be determined by each individual, but all should consider participation at least at a minimal rate to really share in this common responsibility.

Please return completed enrollment forms to Payroll.

SOFTBALL GAME OF THE WEEK last week between the Downstairs Bad Lads and the Slipstick Sliders was a "tight" pitchers duel resulting in a 31 to 10 score in favor of the BadLads. However, if the many rumor mill stories prove to be true, there may be some questions as to the eligibility of certain players on a certain winning team. We violently deplore the nasty aspersions that have been cast upon the integrity of the Bad Lads! We are equally positive that a full disclosure, of all the facts will prove beyond a shadow of a doubt that the Bad Lads are, in fact, not bad lads.

Even before the investigation was completed, "Caruso's Crunchers" were so sure the Bad Lads would be found innocent of the charges that they accepted the most recent challenge and will play the Bad Lads next week.
